

The Bulletin

Norwich, Tuesday, July 21, 1914.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Tomorrow, July 22nd, the moon is new.

Many crabs are being caught, although the large ones have not struck on yet.

A reasonable book recently acquired at the library is "The Maine Marine Vacation Camping for Girls."

Work on the Groton Long Point road began Monday and the road is to be completed in 90 days.

Vacations have begun at the Old Virginia Hall being absent this week.

There was much drying out Monday of rugs, bedding and clothing which had grown rusty during the continued dampness.

Dog days do not begin until Saturday next, the 25th, although there have been a few advance samples all ready this season.

Keeping oil spread upon stagnant brooks and marshy places near houses and barns just now will help ward off the mosquito pest.

This season the vines on the Morton house have been unusually early reaching to the roof of the main portion of the building.

Although his last accident was to break several ribs, Thomas Edwards, 35, next November, is out and about and as spry as ever.

The papers mention that a former Norwich teacher, Clifton H. Hobson, continues as superintendent of the Palmer, Mass. schools.

Bay View Hotel, Niantic, Conn., now open. Refreshments, furnished, fine air, good fishing, boating, bathing. Terms moderate—adv.

Former residents of New York city are being invited back for its big Tercentenary celebration, which will open August 12 and continue through two months.

The progress of the summer is indicated by the fact that the blossoms of the sturdy Bouncing Bet begin to appear along the railroad tracks and river banks.

Today is the anniversary of the death of Dr. James B. Shannon, of Danvers, and will be commemorated by a service of eulogy in St. Patrick's church, Norwich.

Local Esperanto students have received interesting literature regarding the Esperanto congress to be held in Paris for which many of the delegation will start today.

The circulation department of the library of the Wheeler school, North Stonington, which has been closed for several weeks because of the prevalence of scarlet fever, is again open.

Jack Rock, formerly of Norwich, called on Ella Wheeler Wilcox at her cottage at Short Beach, Branford, during last week, to arrange with her for the production of a poem as a moving picture exhibit.

During the summer, members of the Central Baptist church will continue to make plans for the celebration of the County Fair, which the association which meets with this church September 9 and 10.

Luella Young, wife of Elwood S. Young, died Saturday at her home, 27 Walnut street, Roselle Park, N. Y. She is survived by her sister, Mrs. David C. Wall of Brooklyn and one brother, S. M. Glenderson, of Nantux, Conn.

Traveling salesmen heretofore have been notified that the American Commercial Travelers' association, known as the Galeons, is to hold its fifteenth annual convention in the Valley church, Boston, the last three days of this week.

Railroad men have received word that Herman Hefflon died in the state hospital, at Middletown, last week. He was an engineer on the Valley branch between Saybrook Point and Hartford for nearly sixteen years, joining the company in 1899.

State Treasurer of the W. C. T. U., Nellie A. Gage, has been elected to the White Ribbon Banner a total of $68.49, free will offerings, including Scotland, $1.00, Thompson $4.00, Groton $3.00, Putnam $2.45, William $3.33, Norwich $10.00, Niantic, $3.00.

LEGISLATIVE REUNION.

To Be Held the Second Tuesday in August at Momaquin, New Haven.

The committee of the Legislative club of 1913 has held a meeting in the office of the executive secretary in the state capital to arrange for the legislative reunion. It was decided to hold the reunion the second Tuesday in August at the Momaquin, near New Haven. If that place cannot be secured the reunion will be held at the Momaquin, near New Haven. The committee is now making arrangements for the reunion of 1914.

WEDDING

Warner-Burnap.

A pretty wedding took place Monday evening at the residence of Park Congregational church when Miss Ruth L. Burnap and Arthur R. Warner were united in marriage by Rev. E. H. Howe, D. D., pastor of the church. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. John Ringland as matron of honor and the groom by John Ringland as best man. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue satin prunella with a white belt and hat. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the general store, Mrs. Platt avenue. The bridal couple left by automobile amidst a shower of rice and confetti for a wedding trip to New York and on their return they will reside at the bride's home on Platt avenue.

Sphinx Temple Field Day.

Elaborate plans are under way for the biggest outing in the history of the Sphinx temple of the Myrtle Shrine. The time will be the first week in August, the place Momaquin, house East Haven. The entertainment will be a series of sports and a shore dinner.

An useless as the Cabinet.

When all things about fitting the federal reserve board when everybody knows might well that John Skelton Williams left going to need anybody to help him run the Boston Trust company.

PERSONALS

Miss Susan Allen of Church street is at Hampton.

Mrs. Della Dunn is spending a week with friends in Stonington.

Miss Ruth Kind was a caller at South Coventry Lake Sunday.

Miss Maude L. Rider of this city has returned after passing a week in Woodstock.

Dr. and Mrs. James L. Moriarty of Waterbury were in Norwich Sunday on an automobile trip.

Daniel I. Brown of Norwich, a former resident of Groton, has been calling on friends in that borough.

Mrs. Fannie C. Church and Miss Helen S. Moore went to Hampton Saturday for a few days' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rockwell of Norwich were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Opperman in New London.

Mrs. Thomas Doyle has returned to her home on Lafayette street after being seriously ill at the Backus hospital for two weeks.

Miss Julia Kingberger and niece, Elizabeth and Julia Kingberger, are spending their vacation at the Spring House, Black Island.

George Perry of Bartlett's is enjoying his annual vacation. He is employed by the International Silver company at Thamesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dominique E. Lemoine, with their little daughter Mary have returned from a very pleasant and very delightful week at Carnarone cottage, at the Drawbridge.

NORWICH EAGLES

AT BIG CONVENTION.

New Haven is Thronged With Delegates From Aerie of the State.

Among the Norwich delegates attending the New England Association of the Order of Eagles Convention at New Haven are A. S. Spaulding and Joseph C. Keegan.

The first big event in the eleventh annual field day came Sunday night when the Eagles flocked together at the Hotel Oneco for the annual big banquet.

Central Green was thronged Monday afternoon with people interested in the degree team work, and interested people were any who happened to be within eyeshot of the big platform in front of Central church. Every building fronting the lower half of the Green had its crowded windows and an overflow that took to the roofs.

Not once since the Eagles have anything happened in the center that attracted the attention this field day drew.

For today at 11 o'clock the Eagles announce the greatest event of them all. A grand street parade, Eagles in costume, float and band, and a corps of corps. Distinguished visitors in autos, including national law makers, are expected to arrive every city sending a marching club.

At 2 o'clock there will be events at Savin Rock.

At 3 o'clock prizes will be announced from band stand in park, Savin Rock, and the prize winning degree teams will be crowned. First prize, Norwich, Conn.; second, Lawrence, Mass.; third, Pittsfield, Mass. The Torrington team got a percentage of 97 and the percentage of the Lawrence team was 94.1-2.

FUNERALS.

Ernest Frost.

The funeral of Ernest Frost, who died last Monday, will be held at 10 o'clock on Saturday at the funeral home of Undertaker C. A. Gager, Jr., 50 Franklin street. The service will be held at 10 o'clock and in the large attendance were relatives from other cities. Rev. J. H. Dennis, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated at the service and Nearer, My God, to Thee, Abide With Me, and Shall Thou Be Laid to Rest were sung by the church choir. Friends called at the service and burial took place in Maplewood cemetery. Rev. Mr. Dennis read the burial service.

Mr. Frost was 25 years of age and was born in this city. The son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frost, he has been ill about six months. His wife leaves him a mother, a brother, Robert Frost, and a sister.

Mr. Edgar J. Tucker.

At 1 o'clock Monday afternoon the funeral of Louise B. Manning, wife of Edgar J. Tucker, was held from her late home in Lebanon, with Rev. H. A. Campbell of the First Congregational church at Lebanon officiating at the service. Jesus, Lover of My Soul, and One Sweetly Solemn Thought were rendered by the choir. Mrs. Henry Hewitt, Mrs. F. M. Taylor, George Foster and L. L. Tully. The bearers were C. J. Abell, C. A. Perkins, F. P. Fowler and Fred Burgess. Burial took place in the family lot in Center cemetery. The committee service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Campbell. There was a large attendance and there were a number of handsome floral remembrances. Undertaker C. A. Gager, Jr., had charge of the funeral arrangements.

AT THE DAVIS.

Concert Programme and Photoplays.

The Davis theater started out the week with a strong bill headed by John Barrymore in An American Citizen, a play which has been shown in Norwich, and the houses on Monday afternoon and evening tendered it favorable comment. The Mutual Weekly was an interesting feature of the pictures, all of which were so chosen as to carry on a well balanced programme, excellently finished off by the concert programme, to which Ed. J. Boyle contributed the baritone solo. The Lost Chord, and Manager Craig the tenor solo, Sweet Little Maid of Killarney. Their pleasing duet was the old favorite When You and I Were Young, Maggie.

IT'S EASY IF YOU KNOW HOW

Mr. Manufacturer, half of your battle is won when you have aroused the interest of the local dealer.

You do this the minute your advertisement appears in the newspaper, the dealer reads.

He not only sees it but he knows the names of the store will see it.

He realizes that he is going to have a call for your goods and acts accordingly.

All advertising has merit, but the advertising that is going to produce direct sales in the advertising that appears in the daily newspapers.

Manufacturers anxious to know the best way to use newspapers as an advertising medium, the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers' Association, World Building, New York.

Minnesota 1913 has been $3.50 per capita.

FRANKLIN STREET LINE DISCUSSED

Further Straightening of the Westerly Side Was Favored at the Hearing on the Matter Monday Evening, But W. S. Ailing's Conditions Demanded Further Consideration by Common Council.

Will all the property owners on the westerly side of Franklin street between the Bulletin building and Willow street be present at the hearing on the matter of straightening the line of the street, which was held Monday evening at the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his building to the new level, which now lead down to the sidewalk level. The outcome of the hearing, held Monday evening by the common council, Mr. Ailing, recently becoming a property owner on Franklin street. While favoring the new line, and willing to give without charge to the city the land along his frontage beyond this line, he stipulated that the city bear the expense of lowering the floors in the stores and hallways of his